ADA MEADE
BIG PICTURES AT POPULAR PRICES
MATINEES 10c-15c-25c
EVE. SUN. & HOLIDAYS 10c-20c-30c
CONTINUOUS FROM 1 TO 11 P. M.
500 BALCONY SEATS 15c MATINEE

Friday And Saturday

ANITA STEWART
"THE INVISIBLE FEAR"
A STORY STRONG IN DRAMA, ROMANCE and the UNEXPECTED
So Good That We Think You'll Want to See Her in More Like It!

COMING SUNDAY
CHARLES RAY
—IN—
"The Midnight Bell"

TODAY
Yes, And—The Rest of This Week
STRAND THEATRE
THE BEST IN MOVING PICTURES
TODAY
NO RAISE IN PRICES
Adults 22c Plus 3c War Tax. Total 25c
Children 10c Plus 2c War Tax. Total 12c

A BIG CLASSIC, CONCEDED BY CRITICS TO BE A DECIDED ADVANCE IN PHOTOPLAY ART—AN ABSORBING PHOTOPLAY OF HISTORICAL AND EDUCATIONAL VALUE THAT WILL LIVE WHEN THE ORDINARY ENTERTAINMENT FILM HAS PASSED ON.

"THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS"

MAURICE TOURNEUR'S
BIG MOTION PICTURE—AN AMERICAN DRAMA ETERNAL BY JAMES FENIMORE COOPER

2 SCHOOL CHILDREN, FOR—1 ADMISSION, TO SEE—"THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS"
Because of the Historical and Educational Value of "The Last of The Mohicans," And With The Desire That Every School Child in Lexington Shall See It—The Management of The Phoenix Amusement Company Wishes To Announce Two (2) School Children Will Be Admitted For One (1) Admission, For Any Performance To See "The Last of The Mohicans" But Would Prefer The Children From The City Schools of Lexington, Come in a Body, During The Matinee Performances, As The Crowds For The Night Performances Will Be Tremendous. To See—"The Last of The Mohicans!"

THERE'S EVERYTHING FOR EVERYBODY IN "THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS"—And, Come Early—As, Everybody Will See It!!

—WITH—
Pathe News Weekly
—ALSO—
RUTH ROLAND
The Most Magnetic of Serial Stars, And—In the Newest Pathe Sensational Western Serial Thriller, A Superb Serial Sensation of Suspense, Mystery and Thrills—Yes, It Excels Them All!
"The White Eagle"
—AND—
AESOP'S FABLES

See The Strand Show Before Every One You See It!

BEN ALI THEATRE
HIGH-CLASS "VODVIL"

TODAY
MOST SATISFYING "VODVIL" BILL YOU'LL ENJOY
TODAY

RIGDON DANCERS
—With—
GRACE FENIMORE COOPER
—And—
THE NEWTON TWINS
"A Series of Classic Dances"

THE ROSSOW MIDGETS
"Acrobatics and Boxing Specialties"

"BERNICE" MAE MARVIN "JACK"
"Queen of Syncopation"

HOWARD & WHITE
—Presenting—
"THE GADABOUTS"
An Original Comedy by Herbert Hall Winslow
Cast
Tom Potter.....Mr. White
Lesilie, His Wife.....Miss Howard
Scene—Bedroom of the Potter Apartment, New York City. Time—11:00 p. m. a Night in June.

LEW HUFF
"The Nutty Hatter"
JOSEPH M. REGAN
"IRISH TENOR"
Late Star of Williams Rock Revue and "Rose of Killarney".

Photoplayettes—
"The Face of The World"
—With—
BARBARA BEDFORD
And EDWARD HEARN
A Hodkinson Picture

—TWICE DAILY—
Mat. 2:15. Evening 8:15 p.m.
—(Except Saturdays)—
Matinee 2:15
Evening 7:15 and 9:15 p.m.
—PRICES—
Matinees.....5c, 11c, 22c and 33c
Evenings.....5c, 11c, 22c, 33c and 43c
War Tax Included

COME EARLY PHONE 312 BEAT THE CROWDS

MERGER OF OIL FIRMS RUMORED

White Corporation May Unite With Other Companies, Increasing Capitalization to Eighty Million Dollars

OFFICE MAINTAINED HERE

[Special to The Herald]

WINCHESTER, Ky., Feb. 16.—It is reported here today that the White Oil Corporation, formerly of this city, with branch bookkeeping rooms in Lexington and Bowling Green, and head offices in New York and Shreveport, La., will consolidate a merger this week with other large interests. The new corporation will have a capitalization of $20,000,000 it is believed. Mr. White is expected in Winchester this week on business connected with his interests here and in Eastern Kentucky.

Clark county has 5,000 dogs assessed, while 1,626 licences have been secured by dog owners. The maximum fine for any person harboring a dog without license is $100 and 30 days in jail. The time limit for procuring license expired February 15. The sheriff has warned dog owners that the law will be enforced.

New Bus Line Starts

A new motor bus line began operation today on regular schedule from Winchester to Irvine, Ky., and Mt. Sterling by way of Hedges and Thompson in this county. Two round trips daily will be made.

A. B. Hancock of Dayton, Ohio, was here today considering opening a Chinese Chop Suey restaurant.

Miss Lena Bratton of Mt. Sterling, is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Robert S. Scobee at their home on Lexington avenue.

Charles F. Davis went to Lexington today to attend the credit men's banquet at the Lafayette hotel.

George M. Chilton, who has been quite ill for ten days at Jailtown, was able to be in his office for a short time Thursday.

Stephen S. Hays has returned to Winchester after a visit of several months with his son, S. S. Hays Jr., and family, in Inglewood, Cal.

Mrs. J. C. Lory, leader of circle 4 of the auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church, entertained the members of her circle with an old fashioned quilting bee today at her home on Hathaway Court. The women were invited to come at 9 o'clock. They took a basket of lunch and an old fashioned dinner was served to 11 guests. One quilt was quilted and has been sold for $12. Mrs. S. R. Landes, Mrs. Joe Arnold and Mrs. George Steele were guests.

The following marriage license was granted this morning at the county clerk's office: Elva Wise, 24, to Miss Mary Frances Clark, 22. They were married in Wheelersburg today.

T. M. Hampton is ill at his home on the Lambeth pike.

Miss James Brown was in Frankfort today. She guest of Mrs. Willie L. Sloss.

H. Green Garrett has returned from Frankfort, where he has been for several days on business.

MADISON ASSESSMENT INCREASED $1,950,000

State Tax Commission Will Hear Appeal From County March 3

[Special to The Herald]

RICHMOND, Ky., Feb. 16.—Complying with Judge John D. Goodloe received formal notice from the state tax commission Wednesday of an increase in the tax assessment of Madison county of $1,950,000. March 3 was set for an appeal. The increase suggested by the state tax commission is divided as follows: Land, $1,450,000; town lots, $200,000; tangibles, $300,000.

Frank P. Caldwell of the Freeman Realty Company, left Wednesday afternoon for Wichita Falls, Texas, to spend some time on business and for his health.

Clay Davis of Stanford, spent Sunday with friends here.

E. A. Deckhoner of Paris had a real estate deal in not able to trade his room.

Mrs. J. D. Standifer and Mrs. P. M. Singer have returned from New York.

Dr. and Mrs. L. T. Jones and son, Porter Jones, spent Sunday in Cane Orchard the guests of Mrs. J. M. Collier.

Woods Walker has returned to his home at Paint Lick, after spending several weeks in Mississippi attending the fox hunts and visiting friends.

Announcement is made of the arrival of a daughter at the home of Professor H. A. Foster and Mrs. Hughy on Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy MacKinney of Wilson are spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Wes McKinney on Third street.

Thomas Johnston of Chicago, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Wade.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Irvine and Mr. and Mrs. Gentry of Danville, are guests in the home of John Simmons on the Lancaster road.

Miss Margaret Sloat of Nicholasville, is with her daughter, Mrs. Mason Ewing, on the Summit.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Williams of Taylor, were with Mrs. J. C. Oldham Monday en route to Frankfort to visit relatives.

Mrs. Hala Brinning of Quirksand, is the guest of her friend, Mrs. E. J. Harper, on Fourth street.

Professor A. W. Mohn of London, is in Richmond this week attending the series of lectures by Professor Charles McMurry of Peabody College.

MRS. MINA RABER

"A short time ago I was one of the most nervous and miserable persons on the earth, but thanks to Tanlac I'm well and happy now", said Mrs. Mina Raber, 416 Farnsworth Ave., Aurora, Ill.

"It was just about two years ago that I began to be distressed after every meal. I had awful smothering spells at times and my heart beat so irregularly that I often thought I wouldn't live through the attack. Headaches were the rule of my existence and I shudder even now when I think of them. My back hurt me, too, and it was just agony for me to bend over and straighten up again.

"Tanlac has done for me far more than I ever expected, and I'm like a different person altogether. In fact, I'm perfect health now. In my opinion, Tanlac is the best medicine under the sun."

Tanlac is sold by Hayes & McCarthy's, and all good druggists.—Adv.

PARIS IS AFTER NEWPORT MILLS

Commercial Club, Through Secretary Harold Harris, Invites Industry to Settle in Bourbon County Capital

WAR VICTIM IS RETURNED

[Special to The Herald]

PARIS, Ky., Feb. 16.—Paris is making a strong bid for the Newport Roller Mills, which may be moved from that city. Much correspondence has passed between Secretary Harold Harris of the Paris commercial club, and the managers of the Newport Rolling Mills within the past few days.

Military Funeral Sunday

Funeral services of Private James H. Cain will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at the Church of the Annunciation, Cane Run. Father William Dunne officiating. Burial will follow in the Paris Catholic cemetery, with full military honors by Bourbon Post. The body arrived in Paris this afternoon from Louisville, and escorted by a detail from Bourbon Post of the American Legion, was taken to the home of the veteran's father, John Cain of Seventh street.

An X-Ray photograph taken to locate the bullet, fired at Calvin Meng, Monday, by David Chrisinter, shows that it has lodged near the centre between the fifth and sixth ribs. Mr. Meng had a comfortable night last night. His condition is considered satisfactory.

J. C. Bell of New York City, has succeeded J. H. Jones as manager of the Kress store in Paris. Mr. Jones, who has been in charge of the store here for the past two years, has returned to his home in Little Rock, Ark. Mr. Bell, the new manager, was formerly a newspaper man.

Estell Brockbridge, representing the circulation department of the Lexington Herald, was in Paris on business today.

Miss Rosena Filer is ill at her home on Allerton avenue. Today her father, F. S. Filer, became ill suddenly at his insurance office. His condition is not thought to be serious.

Judge H. Clay Howard, who for several months has been in Washington, D. C., has returned to his home here.

Mrs. P. Talbott is out for the first time in several days, after an attack of tonsilitis.

George Ireland has purchased from Brent Collier the old Doty residence at the Maysville and North Middletown pikes. Mr. Ireland will move to the property soon.

H. M. Johnson has been ill at his home on Main for several days.

Leon Bowling, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowling, is threatened with pneumonia.

Louie Woodstock has left on a trip to Hot Springs and Little Rock, Ark. He will return by Oklahoma City, Okla., to visit his two daughters, Mrs. Rasbrough and Miss Hazel Woolfolk.

HAROLD BAUER

Harold Bauer, the famous pianist whose success has been the most remarkable of musicals this season, will appear in concert at Woodland Auditorium tonight at 8:15 o'clock, and will at that time make his first appearance in Lexington. His concerts this season have included nine recitals in Boston, Carnegie Hall, New York City and since then a tour of the West, returning to New York via this route. His reputation as a concert artist is so great that he was received by capacity houses on each occasion caused his success to add also his artistic attainments and to conclude the farmers until the time limit expired for entries. He will be heard tonight by a representative audience of Central Kentucky people and many will come from beyond the limits of Central Kentucky. A large party will come over from Frankfort for the concert and every other nearby town will be represented.

The Bauer concert is the fourth of the Artist Concert Series and the season tickets may be used. Individual tickets will continue on sale today at the booth in the lobby of the Ben Ali theater and tonight at the auditorium.

Frank Bates was self-to have been used in China nearly 6,000 years

PLANS CONSIDERED FOR NEW JAIL IN ESTILL

Courthouse Will Be Remodeled in Irvine—Jail Breaker Is Recaptured

[Special to The Herald]

IRVINE, Ky., Feb. 16.—At a meeting of the fiscal court yesterday an election was called for April 20 to vote on bonds for the improvements of roads and county plans for erection of a new courthouse and jail were discussed. E. A. and O. S. Weber of Cincinnati, were employed to draw plans. The same architects designed the Lafayette hotel in Lexington.

Sheriff James Powell arrested Mat Beasley in Old Landing yesterday. Beasley escaped from jail here about three years ago and has been at liberty ever since.

The squirrel carries a chisel in his mouth, the bee the carpenter's plane.

Another Man Sought for Killing Which Resulted in One Hanging

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Feb. 16.—A murder, committed 11 years ago, and for which a man was hanged, was brought to the fore again today when a warrant charging another man with the killing was issued.

Seeley Hook, a game warden, was the victim. He disappeared in the fall of 1908 and in April, 1909, his body, with weights attached to the arms and legs, was recovered from the Mahoning river. Rheen Raeen was convicted of the murder and hanged in 1909.

For a year J. N. Dunlap, county detective, who said he had discovered new evidence, has been investigating the case, and today he swore out a warrant charging Jim Murdock with killing the warden. Murdock has not been arrested.

BATH CIRCUIT COURT WILL BEGIN MONDAY

E. C. Kimbrell Will Be Tried for Murder of Ed Bailey

[Special to The Herald]

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Feb. 16.—The February term of circuit court will begin here Monday. There are 284 commonwealth cases on docket. E. C. Kimbrell will be tried for the murder of Ed Bailey.

Under the direction of the chamber of commerce the merchants of Owingsville are offering special bargains for Saturday, February 18.

The following invitation has been issued:

"The Woman's Club, you see!
Is giving an old-fashioned 'Spelling Bee.'"

Come one and all and take a chance

To outspell the chamber of commerce and their branch,

February 22 at the courthouse is the date.

At 7:30 p. m. Now don't be late.

A boy in custody count found Mrs. Elva Harding at present mind and ordered her taken to the Eastern State hospital at Lexington.

Among those confined to their homes with influenza are the Rev. H. S. Fields, R. C. Byron, A. T. Byron, W. B. Gaugh, Mrs. and Mrs. W. T. Ricketts and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Spencer.

Mrs. Alex Cooper of Chicago, and daughter, Miss Dorothy, who attends Hamilton College, Lexington, will be week-end guests of Miss Nell Conner.

Mrs. C. W. Young and Miss Elizabeth Brother will spend the week-end in Lexington and will hear Harold Bauer.

MILAWAY NEWS NOTES

[Special to The Herald]

MIDWAY, Ky., Feb. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Roach are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter at the Good Samaritan hospital. She has been named Lilly Parrish.

Miss Anna Belle Coyle and Hansford L. Patterson of Woodford county, were married Saturday.

Miss Hazel Parker entertained with a valentine party at her home on Higbee street.

Mrs. Murray of Cincinnati is with C. F. Roach and family this month.

Miss Ella Nael has returned from a visit with relatives in Owen county.

Miss Lizzie Gardner has been ill of measles this week.

Miss Silvy Glass has returned to her home at White Sulphur after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Wofield Martin.

Miss Carrie Thompson left to spend several weeks in Michigan.

Miss Dorothy Davidson of Morgantown, was the guest of relatives here this week.

Mrs. Virginia Thompson left for Florida to spend the remaining winter months with her daughter, Miss Virginia Thompson.

Miss Sarah Hancock, who taught the Harmony rural school, has been visiting relatives in Midway.

J. B. Wales will leave this week to visit his mother at Lewisburg, Tennessee.

Miss Catherine McHatton and Marian Smith, both of Woodford county, were married Tuesday.

The Higbee club, by request, will give the play, "Mechanical Jane," Friday morning at the chapel hour. The orchestra will play and Misses Leonora Donovan and Ruth Lawson will sing.

NEED OF NEW HOTEL IS URGED IN MT. STERLING

Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce Holds Monthly Luncheon Meeting

[Special to The Herald]

MT. STERLING, Ky., Feb. 16.—The chamber of commerce of Mt. Sterling and Montgomery county met today for the monthly luncheon. President Harry B. Hoffman was in the chair.

E. A. Stell, vice president of the Hockenbury System, Inc. of Harrisburg, Pa., addressed the meeting on Mr. Sterling's need of a new hotel.

R. C. Reed made a report of the government approval of the thoroughfare from Mt. Sterling to the Clark county line. It is the opinion of Mr. Reed that advertisements for bids to construct this highway will be submitted in a few weeks and that this widest roadway will be completed during the year.

To Install Pastor Sunday

The committee appointed by the scenic Presbytery to install the Rev. Charles A. Hay as pastor of the Presbyterian church will have charge of the services Sunday night, February 19, at 7 o'clock. The Hon. T. W. Palmer of Lexington, will preside. The Rev. Benjamin J. Bush, D. D. pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Lexington, will deliver the charge to the congregation. The Rev. S. S. Dunkerly, of the United Presbyterian church of Harrisburg, will deliver the charge to the pastor.

Paralyzed While Bathing

Mrs. W. J. Sutton received a message today that her son, Brexton Sutton, was stricken with paralysis while bathing near his home at Healdstown, Fla., and is critically ill. Mr. Sutton will leave tomorrow for Bradentown to be with him.

Jail Breaker Arrested

Ira Anderson, negro, alias Frank Brown, who escaped jail in Clifton Forge, Va., was captured here last night by Chief of Police J. C. Tipton. He is charged in the jail break. Clifton Forge authorities will come here tomorrow for Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Josh Grimes have purchased the Cooper residence property on West High street and will move to the place to reside. Possession will be given March 1.

Mrs. Robert Marshall, who several days ago suffered a stroke of paralysis, is in a critical condition.

Miss Nell Tipton is improving from a severe attack of influenza.

W. H. Tipton has returned to Pineville, after visiting Mrs. Tipton here.

Pat Bellearn has returned from a few days visit with relatives in Augusta.

Mrs. D. R. Gwinn of Huntington, W. Va., has been called here by the critical illness of her mother, Mrs. Robert Marshall.

Mrs. E. R. Watkins of Carlisle, is the guest of her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Crafton.

Mrs. B. Neville Smith of Madisonville, and Miss Louise Williams of Bryan Station, are guests of their sister, Mrs. C. B. Scott.

Miss Georgia B. Shield is ill at her apartment on Main street.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days

Druggists refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure Itching, Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles. First application gives relief. 60c.—adv.

DARNALL WILL FILED

Mrs. Ida Darnall, widow of E. P. Darnall, under the terms of the will of her husband which was filed for probate in county court yesterday, is bequeathed his entire estate, both real and personal property. Mrs. Darnall was also named as executrix of the will and qualified yesterday. Bile gave bond in the sum of $4,000. The will was probated on the oaths of W. J. Hayden and M. P. Purdom, the witnesses to the will.

PUBLIC SALE

I will sell 20 head well broke Mules next Monday at Nicholasville, Ky., 11 a. m., to highest bidder at Walker's barn.

R. A. DODD.

Five Physicians Sued by Man Committed to Asylum

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 16.—W. D. Lewis, insurance agent, today filed suit against five physicians as the result of his having been adjudged insane and committed to the Central Hospital for the Insane at Lakeland last March. He asked for judgment of $25,000 against Dr. Henry F. Toley, superintendent of the city hospital; Dr. W. E. Gardner and Dr. H. H. Scott, who, he alleged, testified in criminal court March 2, 1921, that he was a person of unsound mind, and against Dr. W. A. Dilbon, superintendent, and A. F. Smith, assistant superintendent of the Lakeland asylum.

WOODFORD YOUTH MAY WIN CARNEGIE MEDAL

Believed to Have Saved Life of Girl Attacked by Vicious Cow

[Special to The Herald]

VERSAILLES, Ky., Feb. 16.—Coy Craig, 15-year-old school boy of Mortonsville, will be recommended for a Carnegie medal for saving life. The teacher of the Mortonsville school and several pupils were returning home from school when Estelle Green Fraser was attacked by a cow and pinned to the ground before her home. Young Craig rushed to the girl's assistance and succeeded in driving the animal away. The child was uninjured.

Assessment Increased $1,900,000

The state tax commission has notified Woodford officials of an increase of $1,900,000 in the tax assessment of the county, an $1,000,000 raise on land, $300,000 on town lots and $600,000 on personalty. March 3 is the date set for a hearing before the board. A committee will be appointed to protest the raise.

Celebrate Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. James Y. Edwards are celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage at their home on the Clifton pike, Thursday.

Captain O. B. Gaines and Mrs. Gaines celebrated the eighteenth anniversary of their marriage Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Smithey of the Lexington pike are rejoicing at the coming of a daughter on Monday. Mrs. Smithey was Miss Annette Shropshire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Webb Shropshire.

T. L. Beasley, formerly with the S. A. Gaus grocery store, has taken a position with the Blue Front store, Rose Hill.

Mrs. Hugh Young and Mrs. M. M. Hughes of Louisville, motored here Tuesday.

Miss Dorothy Harris, daughter of

Best Cough Mixture Is Home Made

Acts With Speed—Loosens the Phlegm—Stops the Irritation and Coughing Ceases

Fine for Chest Colds Too and Is Cheaply Made at Home

When you can make, in two minutes, a cold healing remedy that acts direct on the membrane and often prevents colds, stubborn coughs and sore throat when colds threaten, why bother with claims that will probably disappoint?

Hawkins and smarting and also the inflamed membranes are soothed and you will feel the relief at once.

Just get one ounce of Pinex (your druggist should not sell you more) and add to it a little sugar syrup or honey if you prefer. Mix in a pint and you've got a pint of wonderfully better than you can buy ready mixed.

Its soothing, healing action on the membranes is the reason so many people like it for children and adults relief.

Says Pile Remedy Worth $100.00 a Box

"I have have itching piles ever since my earliest recollection," says 28 years old and have suffered terribly. I have tried many remedies and doctored, but no cure. About 3 weeks ago I saw your ad for Peterson's Ointment. The first application stopped all itching and in three days all pain. I have only used one box and consider it cured. I can't express my grateful heartfelt thanks and may everyone that has this trouble see this and give your ointment that is worth a hundred dollars or more a box a trial. Sincerely yours, A. Nesbit, Columbus, Ohio."

Peterson's Ointment for Piles, Eczema and old sores is only $1.00 a large box at all druggists. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., this New George H. Harris, who has been in a Lexington hospital, has been brought here.

Mrs. William Rabe is reported critically ill of double pneumonia.

The Rev. W. J. Shelburne and family moved into the Christian church parsonage, Morgan street, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Chrisler have gone to housekeeping in rooms at Mrs. H. P. Clopper's, Green street.

Miss Jennie Edwards is very ill of pneumonia.

JESSAMINE FORTY ACRE FARM SOLD FOR $8,100

Thomas Bailey Purchases Property From Joseph Kurre at Auction

[Special to The Herald]

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., Feb. 16.—The farm of Joseph Kurre on the Union mill pike, about four miles east of Nicholasville, was sold at public auction today by Tyree and Robinson, auctioneers, to Thomas Bailey, for $8,100. The tract embraced forty acres. It has a two story residence.

The Girls' Circle of the Christian church met at the home of Miss Jessie Reyes on Lake avenue today. Miss Helen Hixon was the leader. After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served. The decorations and favors carried out the Valentine idea.

At the meeting of the mothers' department of the Woman's Club Mrs. David Kinkide was elected vice chairman and Mrs. Marshall Davis secretary and treasurer. Mrs. J. Lee Grimsley is chairman of the department.

SLAYER IS PAROLED

[Special to The Herald]

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 16.—The state board of charities and corrections today paroled Sam Stacer of Jefferson county, who served ten years of a life sentence for murder. Stacer was convicted in the December 1920 term of the Jefferson circuit court.

BEWARE OF GHOSTS

AT MIDNIGHT BELL

ADA MEADE
STARTING SUNDAY

ORPHEUM
CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE
10:00 a. m. to 11:00 p. m.
GO WHERE THE CROWDS GO
ADMISSION 10c. WAR TAX 2c
CHILDREN 10c
TODAY
GEORGE B. SEITZ—JUNE CAPRICE
—IN—
"ROGUES AND ROMANCE"
Smart, supersocial, with Marguerite Courtot. A romantic adventure of dashing Spain—a peppy Yank—a Spanish siren—a reckless rogue—and an American beauty in a battle of wits and passions. Also
FRITZIE RIDGEWAY
"Bandits of Hell" Cap
Special Western
EARL RODNEY
—IN—
"The Reckless Ben"
Two-reel comedy.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take
Laxative
Bromo Quinine
tablets
Be sure you get
BROMO
The genuine bears this signature
E. W. Grove
Price 30c

HAROLD BAUER, Master Pianist
Fourth Concert Artist Series
WOODLAND AUDITORIUM
Friday, February 17, 8:15 P. M.
Auspices
THE LEXINGTON COLLEGE OF MUSIC
Anna Chandler Goff, Director
Season Tickets Good For This Concert
Single Ticket Prices—First Floor $2.75, $2.20, $1.65.
Balcony $1.65, $1.10 War Tax Included
Order Tickets NOW. Phone 630-K. On Sale at Ben Ali Theatre Lobby, beginning Wednesday, February 15, 9 o'clock A. M.
Phones 2891 or 630-K

"GIFTS THAT LAST"
SKULLER'S
LEXINGTON'S LEADING JEWELER
127 West Main Street
LEXINGTON, KY.