The Sale of Muslin Underwear

Thousands of garments have been sold during the first week of the May Sale, without any apparent lessening of the immense quantities with which we started. But the loveliest pieces are naturally being chosen first, and we urge women to buy to-day if they wish to select novelties which cannot be duplicated in time to enter the Sale, once all are sold. In inexpensive garments, in particular, this Sale excels. For instance:

Night Gowns at 50c—Of crinkled crepe, chemise style; neck and sleeves trimmed with torchon lace.

Night Gowns at $1.00 — Of crepe, chemise style, neck and short sleeves trimmed with ribbon-threaded embroidery.

Drawers at 50c — Of cambric, with a ruffle of sturdy embroidery and a cluster of tucks. Others of crinkled crepe, with hemstitched ruffle.

Corset Covers, 38c —Soft cambric, trimmed with Valenciennes lace insertion and edge.

Combinations, $1.50 — Corset Cover-and-Marcella-style Drawers of nainsook, trimmed with an embroidery edge.
